Domestic Abuse Center: 989 Knox Abbott Drive, Cayce, SC 29033; 803-791-1322. The Domestic Abuse Center (DAC) is a private, non profit agency serving domestic violence offenders, in operation for over thirty years- accepting referrals from multiple jurisdictions in the state. DAC is also known as a Batterer Intervention Program or BIP. Aside from an orientation and assessment, the DAC program consists of attendance at a minimum of twenty six (26) group sessions, held weekly in ninety minute session. Duration of the DAC program can be longer if there are extenuating circumstances related to an individual's specific situation. DAC meets the "Solicitor Guidelines and Standards for the Approval of Domestic Violence Intervention Programs" for offenders of domestic violence who must satisfy court orders by participating in treatment. Education about individual, cultural, and family dynamics of domestic violence are included in the program.
G. Domestic Violence Services for Victims

Sistercare: 1820 Morrelaine Road, Cayce, SC 29033; 803-765-9428. Sistercare, Inc. is a nonprofit, United Way partner agency. Sistercare seeks to provide comprehensive services for victims of domestic violence and their children and to advocate on behalf of these survivors, and to help prevent domestic violence through community awareness and education. Sistercare is the only organization that offers specialized shelter and support services for survivors of demestic violence and their children in the Lexington Circuit. Sistercare, Inc. also offers a 28 week program which meets the "Solicitor Guidelines and Standards for the Approval of Domestic Violence Intervention Programs" for offenders of domestic violence who must satisfy court orders by participating in treatment. Education about individual, cultural, and family dynamics of domestic violence are included in the program. Dickerson Children's Advocacy Center: 140 Gibson Road, Lexington, SC 29072; 803-358-7200. The Dickerson Children's Advocacy Center works with children affected by physical and sexual abuse, drug endangerment, and the wtinessing of violence. They provide a safe and caring environment where children and their non-abusive parent(s) or guardians can recieve services to victims of child abuse between the ages of 0 to 18. Providing these services in a single location can help alleviate additional stress and trauma that children can experience by moving between agencies.

In previous years we have made recommendations to pursue the statewide initiative of enacting the Handle With Care program in each county, but more specifically within our own counties. We are pleased to announce that the Greenville County Sheriff's Office has officially gotten the program up and running in Greenville County. They made five notifications to children's schools within the first 12 hours of the program. This is a huge win for the children of Greenville County!
