THE RIGHT JOB FOR YOU!

Attorneys at our office can expect to work in a unified environment on challenging and meaningful work. The work allows them to gain hands-on experience while working independently on various important and significant cases. This allows attorneys at the SC Attorney General's Office to gain experience quicker than they would working at a private law firm. All staff receive opportunities for further training and advancement; an attorney could transfer into other sections within the office and experience a little bit of all we have to offer over their career here.

Our agency has a tight-knit culture that promotes interaction among employees at all levels; this helps create an enjoyable and rewarding environment where staff feels at home even when working.
